7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 LYDIA DIANA WILLIAMS,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 CAROLYN W. COLVIN,

14 Defendant.

CASE NO. C14-0018-JCC

ORDER

15 This matter comes before the Court on the Report and Recommendation of United States
16 Magistrate Judge Mary Alice Theiler (Dkt. No. 27), and the objections and responses thereto
17 (Dkt. Nos. 28, 29, 30). Having thoroughly considered the parties' briefing and the relevant
18 record, the Court finds oral argument unnecessary and hereby ADOPTS the Report and 19 Recommendation for the reasons explained herein.

20 Plaintiff reasserts her original arguments (Dkt. No. 28 at 1), and raises three objections to 21 the Report and Recommendations. Plaintiff first suggests that the Magistrate Judge misapplied
22 the substantial-evidence standard and failed to consider that the ALJ had the burden of 23 persuasion. (Dkt. No. 28 at 2; Dkt. No. 30 at 2 (citing Young v. Holder, 697 F.3d 976 (9th Cir.
24 2012)).) The Magistrate Judge, however, acknowledged this argument and appropriately found 25 that applying the substantial-evidence standard in this case does not require overturning the 26 Commissioner's decision if the evidence is closely balanced. As Plaintiff herself recognizes, "the

1 substantial evidence standard sets broad error bars around the ALJ's effort[s]," (Dkt. No. 30 at 2)
2 and the Court concludes that the Magistrate Judge did not misapply those "broad error bars" in
3 reviewing the Commissioner's decision.

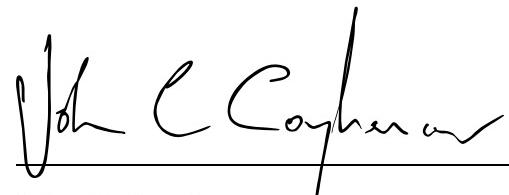

4 Plaintiff also argues that the ALJ provided legally insufficient reasons for rejecting the
5 treating physician's opinion, and that Plaintiff's general credibility was irrelevant because the
6 treating physician did not base her opinion on Plaintiff's self-reports. (Dkt. No. 28 at 3–6.)
7 Having reviewed these objections, the Court agrees with the Magistrate Judge's thorough
8 analysis of the ALJ's treatment of Dr. Paretsky's opinion and the specific inconsistencies and
9 discrediting factors cited by the ALJ and the Magistrate Judge. (Dkt. No. 27 at 8–10.)

10 Accordingly, the Court hereby ORDERS:

- 11 (1) The Court ADOPTS the Report and Recommendation;
12 (2) The Court AFFIRMS the decision of the Commissioner; and
13 (3) The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to all counsel and to Judge Theiler.

14 DATED this 30th day of September 2014.
